Aaron Jackson Bowman

A Chicago native, Aaron now calls Newton home and maintains a studio there. He attended the University of Illinois, earning master’s degrees in both architecture and business. As an artist that has been painting for over 25 years, Aaron's current work is largely influenced by the power of line, an impossible-to-ignore element in the organization of our life experiences and environment, both natural and artificial. Aaron has exhibited work in Miami, Washington DC, and the Wichita metro area including solo shows at Carriage Factory Art Gallery and Wichita City Arts. He has upcoming exhibitions in Dallas, Texas and Paris, France. Aaron is a member of the Carriage Factory Gallery Board.
