

Jay Holobach: Meet the Palette Knife, Your New Messy Friend Supply List

---

- A "can do" spirit and a friendly smile to share with your classmates
- Your lunch and snacks... You can't paint hungry!
- A tabletop easel will be provided – if you have a French easel or pochade easel set up, feel free to bring
- Old shirt or apron to protect clothing. Paint ruins clothing!
- Optional: Nitrile gloves to keep paint off hands
- Notebook/pen for taking notes
- Sketchbook and (markers, charcoal, carbon pencils, whatever you use)
- If you do not currently own a palette knife, (approx. pricing provided) these can be found online at <https://www.jerrysartarama.com/creative-mark-painters-edge-knives> (Aprox $10)
  - 6T, Trowel, #56193 Painter's Edge Painting Knife
  - 44T, Trowel #56230 Painter's Edge Painting Knife
  - One or two brushes (flat, filbert or round, your choice) You'll use a brush to touch up /blend.
  - Either OIL or ACRYLIC paint works for knife styled painting. Your instructor recommends the following colors:
    - Ultramarine Blue
    - Cerulean Blue
    - Cobalt Blue
    - Cadmium Red Light
    - Quinacridone Red
    - Cadmium Yellow Light
    - Lemon (Hansa) Yellow
    - Cadmium Orange
    - Titanium White
    - Dioxazine Violet
  - Please do not buy a color you'll never use again. Be kind to your budget! If you use different colors than what's listed above. That's ok.
- Palette knife painting is Solvent Free! (Gamsol or Safflower oil may be used for clean-up but is not mandatory) Odor Free solvent only.
- Palette to mix on (wood, acrylic, paper. (Glass breaks), minimum 12x16 inches
- (1) Roll of paper towel
- 6-7 pre-primed panels (Panels are easier to use than stretched canvas) Can be cotton, linen, or a simple gesso'd board. This is PRACTICE. Use inexpensive panels. You are trying something new. Be kind to your budget!
- Minimum size 9 x 12" – Maximum size 12 x 16"
- Wide brimmed hat for painting, if we go outdoors, weather permitting
- Bring a wet panel carrier to take your panels home. Nothing ruins your day more than getting wet paint in your car... (trust me)
